Ok – yeah, we will probably send it to him as an FYI as we have been doing. As it is now written, I am ok sending it back to Eileen. Feel free to do that now/tomorrow morning with a CC to me, with a note that OGC will FYI it to Justin, but she should feel free to exchange drafts with the plaintiffs. Thanks!

Thanks. I think you are both in the draft document right now. Please edit/comment away and we can clean it up by tomorrow morning. R6 management has been pretty hands off on the status reports, but do you think anyone in OGC (Justin?) wants to review it before we send it back to Eileen?

I see your additions at the bottom of the document now. I'll comment further there.

I uploaded the draft status report that Eileen shared last week, and I'm about to start editing it. I thought sharepoint would be the best platform to use since we have to get this back to Eileen soon. Jennifer, if there's a better sharepoint folder to use, we can always move it. Dan, let us know if you can't access the document. Thanks.
